

Project staff

Greg Owen, Project Director

Greg is a Consulting Scientist at Wilder Research and directed the Center's first study of Saint Paul's homeless population in 1984. He was responsible for overall project design and oversight.

June Heineman, Research Associate

June coordinated Wilder's work with the volunteer interviewers and the shelters that serve adults and children. June was responsible for the data preparation, data analysis, table preparation, and report writing.

Ellen Shelton, Research Scientist and Policy Analyst

Ellen contributed to the study design and analysis and was responsible for examining the policy implications of study findings.

Michelle Decker Gerrard, Research Scientist

Michelle coordinated the efforts of outreach workers and volunteers who interviewed youth and adults in non-shelter locations. Michelle was responsible for data analysis and report writing.

Mark Anton, Research Analyst

Mark conducted data analysis for the study, including table preparation, statistical summaries, and sample weighting.

Ginger Hope, Communications Manager

Ginger assisted in preparing and disseminating study materials, including reports and web site content.

Marilyn Conrad, Administrative Services Manager

Marilyn supervised report production and coordinated mailings, survey distribution, and honoraria to participants. She also developed the web-based data tables of survey results.

Karen Ulstad, Survey Research Coordinator

Karen assisted in the coordination of volunteer interviewers and shelter providers. Karen also was involved in collecting the shelter counts from the providers and preparing the surveys for data entry.

Acknowledgments

The fifth statewide survey of persons without permanent shelter benefited from the help of many contributors. Funding was provided by the Minnesota Housing Finance Agency, the Minnesota Department of Human Services, the Minnesota Department of Veterans Affairs; the Family Housing Fund, the Greater Minnesota Housing Fund, and the Amherst H. Wilder Foundation.

Housing Finance Commissioner Tim Marx, as well as staff member Cherie Shoquist, helped bring state and local agencies together to collaborate on the study. Vicki Farden and Rhonda McCall from Minnesota Housing Finance Agency consulted on housing questions.

Michael Dahl of the Minnesota Coalition for the Homeless encouraged service providers and volunteers to participate. Sue Watlov Philips, executive director of the National Coalition for the Homeless, served as an advisor on national policy issues.

Pat Leary from the Minnesota Department of Human Services helped identify sites throughout the state where homeless people could be found. He and his staff provided historical data from the Department's quarterly shelter counts.

Carolee Kelley, Pam Rienstatler, and Dave Schultz from the Minnesota Department of Human Services and Sheila Brunelle from the Minnesota Department of Health consulted on health and service questions.

In addition to those named above, many others helped with the design of the survey including: Jim Anderson, Patty Beech, Angie Bernhard, Bill Donnay, Mary Ulland Evans, Dennis Forsberg, Jonathan Farmer, Lisa Graphenteen, Chip Hallbach, Mark Hendrickson, Ginger Hope, Leona Humphrey, Tim Jorissen, Rachael Kincaid, Kim Leiberman, Jane Lawrenz, Rhonda McCall, Gale McEvoy, Tina O'Malley, John Petroskas, Paula Phillips, Lisa Potswald, Mary Riley, Dale Rollie, Barb Sipson, Christy Snow, Trinetta Thunstrom, Laura Turner, Rich Wayman, and Patrick Wood.

Members of the Minnesota Coalition for the Homeless and individuals from many other agencies and voluntary associations served as site leaders, coordinators and interviewers for our survey effort. The statewide training site leaders include: Mark Anton, Phil Cooper, Michelle Gerrard, Pat Grundmeier, Maria Lozano, Nicole Martin, Gail McEvoy, Laura McLain, Leah Ovando, Marlene Rodriguez, Ben Shardlow, Ellen Shelton, Barb Sipson, Sue Sorenson, Val Strukel, and Jessica Weber.

Many Wilder Research staff members contributed to the success of the project. Wayne Ramsden and Ron Mortenson assisted in collecting information from shelter providers. Thalia Cooper, Doug Frost, Jane Frost, Harry Greenberg, Chelsea Hibbard, Deirdre Hinz, James Meyer, Deborah Sjostrom, and Kristin Ulstad coded and prepared the survey forms for data entry. Mark Anton, Phil Cooper, and Bryan Lloyd coordinated data entry and analysis. The data entry staff included Linda Houle, Ryan McArdle, and Jodi Schoon. Marilyn Conrad, Jackie Campeau, and Louann Graham prepared this document. Heather Johnson helped with the literature review. Many other staff members provided assistance and served as site leaders and interviewers.

The Minnesota Satellite Technology Center provided the facilities and staff for our statewide training efforts. Minnesota's Technical Colleges provided training space and additional technical support throughout the state including sites in: Bemidji, Brooklyn Park, Duluth, Hibbing, Mankato, Minneapolis, Moorhead, Red Wing, Saint Cloud, Saint Paul, Thief River Falls, and Willmar.

This report would not have been possible without the cooperation of the study respondents who answered questions and described their personal experiences in shelters, transitional programs, drop-in centers, on the streets, and in other locations. Our report is dedicated to them.
